1. According to a local resident, during the night of 29 to 30 March 1952, a motorized Soviet unit of unknown strength was camping in the vicinity of Horn (Lower Austria). It is not known, whether such unit was on maneuvers or en route for Doellersheim.
2. According to a local resident, early in the afternoon of 30 March 1952, on the road from Horn to Doellersheim a long motorized Soviet column of trucks, sedans, jeeps, personnel carriers, armored personnel carriers, and armored reconnaissance cars was seen. The vehicles were covered with snow. There was no snow in the area, therefore they probably came from a remote region. Strength of unit believed to be approximately one regiment. [REDACTED] 25X1C
3. According to a local resident, on 1 April 1952, motorized Soviet units were en route from Doellersheim in direction of Stockerau. One unit parked on main road between Maissau and Ravelsbach (near Horn).
4. Source, on 2 April 1952, between 08:00 and 10:30 hrs., on the road Doellersheim to Stockerau (probably en route to Korneuburg) saw four motorized Soviet columns.
